A BOOK OF GOLDEN POEMS, MADE FOR THE POPULAR HEART.
BY J. W. PALMER.
Upward of Sixty Original Illustrations, exquisite in Design and Execution, FAC-SIMILES OF THE ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH COPIES OF FIFTHEN FARORS POEMS.
BY Heod ("The Song of the Shirt"). Tennyson, Bryant, Leigh Hunt, Longfellow, Barry Cornwall, Holmes, Kingeley, Paine "Home, Sweet Home", Whitter, Browning, Lowell, Emerson, Wills, and Pinkney—expressly contributed to this work by the Poets or their friends.
Sons volenas, Moval Octavo,
Printed on the finest tinted paper, at The Riverside Press, Cambridge, And superbly bound in Turkey norrecco, richly gilt; also in antique morocco and morocco elegant. Price of each style, put up in a neat box, $10.

In this volume it has been the editor's purpose to bring together over two hundred famous and favorite pieces of a purely sympathetic and emotional character—poems which, having won the unqualified praise of refused criticism, possess also a peculiar charm for the popular heart. The reader will recognize many a rare old bit of poesy, which, though affectionately remembered, he would have been at a loss where to look for. The designs exhibit rare beauty and originality. Among the artists are:
CHURCH, EASTMAN, JohnSON, ALENSETT.
MEENTEE, HILL, BARRY, EYTINGE, BOUGHTON, DARLEY, McDONOUGH, McLENAN, WALLIN, HOPPIN, PARSONS, MEFFERT HENNESSY, NAST, and others.

"It is beyond a question the handsomest and most tasteful volume ever produced in America. We can speak from our own knowledge of the length of labor and the loving care that have been devoted to it, and the result is a gift book unique in its way, and suited to all seasons and tastes."

From The N. Y. Observer.

"Each of these exquisite engravings are real gems of art, and will bear the closest examination, not only as illustrations of the beautiful poems they accompany, but as specimens of the perfection which our artists have reached. The foc-simile poems from manuscripts furnished by the authors are a curious study, full of interest. The volume will be a household treasure."

"A perfect gallery of characteristic, graphic gems, being each executed con amore, in illustration of as many choice poems, heade far similes of the autograph originals of some of the most famous furitive verses in the English language. Every piece is a jewel, and the whole is intended to exemplify the highest uses of poetry in its mission 'to stir, to soothe, to elevate, by bring ing into one focus the scattered rays of 'light divine,' in which the spirit of song has invested the nearest and dearest relations of daily life. The printing of this work has never been equaled."

From The N. Y. Evangelist.

"This is a king among the tiff Hooks; when truth is married to heavity, purity of thought to grace of expression, tenderness of feeling to softly flowing, numbers, the car and the acul are alike charmed with the exquisite meledy—such is the general character of the Folk-sengs of which this royal volume is composed."

From The N. Y. Independent. "We are at a loss whether most to admire the taste, variety, and richness of the poetic selections—the desintiness of the type ography—each page wearing the impress of handwork—more skillful and true than the best mechanism of the printer's art—or the illustrations designed by such artists as Church, Johnson, Kensett, Darley, Bury, Hoppin, and executed with the nicest points of the engraver. The whole impression of the volume is that of taste, reinsement, elegance.

One of the most exquisite specimens of art applied to poetry n a book-form ever executed in this country is the "Illustrated Forest Hymn" of Bryant, just issued by Townsend & Co. Le the reader recall the descriptive touches in that favorite poet wherein leaf, trunk, root, shade, sunshine, and birds, are broug perception, and reverent simplicity, and he will realize how admirably Mr. Hows—a new, but destined to be an honored name in art—has translated, with the pencil, the poet's earnest and true touches. This little quarto in all the details of its exe. tion is the most highly finished, harmonious and beautifr American gift-book yet made in this country."

"The picture sque images suggested to the mind by every line of this poem are conveyed to the eye by exquisite and appropriat illustrations. Never was the marriage of the pen and peucil more initimate and indissoluble. Never did artist enter more perfectly into the thought of the poet or embody his conceptions more felicitously Never, we feel assured, was poetry clothed in a more beautiful and fitting garb. From The Boston Recorder.

"The author of this book has a happy talent at addressing the popular mind, and he has here made a book which we think will be highly useful. The subject which it treat is one of vast importance, and the present attitude of the public mind in regard to it requires that it be handled with ability, candor, and good judgment. and nutritious, has an agreeable, natural taste, is less hable to sour, will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances, it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is fre-quently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lest by being converted into car-bonic acid gas, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using Concentrated Leaven this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a man ner equally efficacions. Fermentation destroys a part of the flour or meal; a barrel of flour, weighing 136 pounds, which ordinarily makes about 250 pounds of bread, gives by this process 29 to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many ills flesh is belt to" is so, prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carclessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite aniety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless oarly eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an utimely grave. Among the lighter evits of which costiveness is the ound attendant are Headache, Colie, Rheumatian, Foni Breath, Piles, and others of fike nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Panlysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriacis, Meiancholy and Jusanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrquently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is readicated in an early stage. From all these considerations is follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

PACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a cer-tain cure for Bick Headache, Nervous Headache, Costroneon and General Debility.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding on Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be ramedled; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic the advances of the same, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy. Goul, Rheumatian, and all febrie diseases. In its narvous form it is sympothetic of disease of the stomach, constituting sick haudachs, of worms, onestipation, and other disorders of the howels, as well as recal and uterius affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches, Amends and plathors are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of servous headache, sometime coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on alowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; ander this class may also be named Newralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Hesdache, the Cephalia Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power endicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.
